

Gathering Sale “Script”

It’s a small world, really. The actions we take can positively impact the lives of people living continents away. Eternal Threads is committed to weaving connections between you and the village crafts women of twelve countries. With each purchase, you add meaning and purpose to its value and give hope and dignity to the woman who crafted it.

We recommend that you, or a person of your choosing, spend a few minutes introducing the project. To facilitate that we provide:

- A brief “script” (below) to tell your group about Eternal Threads.
- New DVD presentation...
